AT MADISON, THURSDAY, JULY 13.

☞ ALL MEN opposed to the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, the Extension of Slavery, and the Rule of the Slave Power, are invited to meet at Madison, Thursday, July 13, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the future encroachments of the Slave Power, or, to repeal all Compromises in favor of Slavery, and to establish the principle of Freedom as the rule of the State and National Governments. The time has come for the union of all Free Men for the sake of Freedom. There is but one alternative. We must unite and be free, or divide and be enslaved by the praetorian bands of the Slaveholders and their Nebraska allies. MANY CITIZENS.

A Gross Libel upon Boston.

The Morning News of yesterday, in order to help along its notable desire of winning our German and Irish fellow-citizens to its pro-Slavery standard, by pandering to their national and religious prejudices, publishes a letter from Boston, commenting upon the recent Slave riot there, from which we make the following choice extracts:

But Heaven have mercy on the poor Hibernians, if their condition in Ireland is worse or more intolerable than it is in Boston, the "Athens of America." They are here driven, I might say, even with the point of the bayonet from all participation in the blessings of the government—privately abused and publicly insulted, and for what? Because they do not believe as other churches do.

* * * * * * *

Here, where philanthropy is claimed to receive its main nutriment, the Irish are persecuted with a zeal and hatred worthy of the halcyon days of Salem Witchcraft.

* * * * * * *

I asked a prominent disciple of the "Angel Gabriel" the other day why he took so much pains to escort that nondescript from place to place, when, as an intellectual treat, one might as well spend his time in listening to the barking of dogs. "O," said he, "it is only to secure the right of speech." "But," I rejoined "suppose a catholic wanted to hold forth his peculiar views." With great warmth he replied, "I would turn out to help mob him, for a catholic has no right here—I wish that every one's throat was cut from ear to ear!"

This is a specimen of the general feeling against that portion of our adopted citizens holding the catholic faith.

But these Boston Abolitionists—those who would drench the streets with the blood of their fathers and brothers, would bless with one hand and curse with the other. They would "rejoice" to see an Irishman weltering in his gore or swinging on the gibbet, while they would hill the streets with blood to procure the liberty of a single African!

We have not the slightest doubt that every one of the statements made in these extracts is manufactured out of whole cloth, as we know the inferences drawn from them to be grossly false and unfounded. Irishmen are as well treated in Boston, as in any part of the United States, and the best possible proof of that is to be found in the unusually large proportion of Irishmen in the aggregate population of that city. They would not be apt to stay long in a city where they were "persecuted with a zeal and hatred worthy of the halcyon days of Salem witchcraft," when all the rest of the Union was open to their enterprise. That "fanaticism" is to be found in Boston, as in every other part of the land, is not to be doubted; but that religious intolerance and Catholic and Irish proscription is "the general feeling" among its citizens, is utterly and notoriously untrue.

The Brooklyn Riot.

A correspondent who signs himself "Fair Play" complains that he has seen no contradiction in the Sentinel of the exaggerated accounts of loss of life growing out of the Sunday riot in Brooklyn some ten days since. The contradiction was published in the Sentinel of the 2d, the day after our issue containing the first account, and both just as they reached us by Telegraph. No lives were lost in the riot, tho' the Telegraph at first reported several persons killed.

"Fair Play" thinks that gross injustice was done to the Irish by the Telegraph version of the riot, and that the Sentinel ought to publish a "true statement of the facts." The difficulty is, to find such a statement. The one to which he refers us, that of the N. Y. Herald, is contradicted by other papers. No doubt there was great provocation and outrage on both sides. "Fair Play" intimates, further, that the comments of the Sentinel on this disgraceful affray are rather one-sided. We cannot think so. Here is what we said, and we should be pleased to have "Fair Play" specify what portion of our remarks he excepts to:

(From the Sentinel of June 7th.)

Our columns to-day contain accounts of another of the disgraceful riots, of weekly occurrence of late in the eastern cities, arising out of mistaken religious zeal. We have no sympathy for the crazy fanatics who, for the most part, are the origin of these disturbances. Some of them are plainly fit only for a lunatic asylum, and should not be allowed to go at large, while others have more method in their madness, and go deliberately about their work, with the avowed intention of making an excitement. All this does not excuse their assailants. They have no business to hear anything which they do not like to hear; above all, they have no business to go where they may expect to hear a speech unpleasing to them. The freedom of speech will be vindicated, in this country, at all hazards, and those are unfit for freedom who have not lived long enough, and learned enough, to know better than to attempt to trample upon it.

Secretary Barstow and the School Fund.—

The Oshkosh Courier occupies much space with an article praising Gov. Barstow to the skies, on various accounts. Going back of his election, it ascribes to him the credit of having made some wonderful revolution in the manner of keeping the School Fund accounts while Sec'y of State, and adds that:

"In the loans of the School fund, although investigated by three committees of the Legislature, and still more sharply looked after by the argus eyes of personal enemies, everything has been found right and the interests of the state safe."

So far from everything having been "found right," it was found that in many cases, no interest had been paid for years. And the investigation and report of the Committee of the last Legislature amounts to just this:

The Committee have had so much to do that they could not investigate the subject, and they express no opinion, but report the names, amount of loans, and securities in each county, so that the people may see what disposal has been made of the fund. This Report, of which 1000 copies were to be published, we have before us, and shall commence its publication shortly, for the information of our readers.

☞ The Wisconsin says that FRED HORN, ex-Speaker and Emigration Commissioner, appointed by Gov. Barstow, is the author of the letter in the Madison Democrat, abusing President PIERCE for declining to remove Postmaster NOONAN, because the News had attacked "Barstow and the balance."

U. S. SENATOR IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Tribune of Saturday says New Hampshire is not swallowed by the compact-breakers. They thought they were going to elect two U. S. Senators yesterday, because they had just carried their Speaker; but when the noses came to be counted, they found several turned the wrong way, and requiring liberal poultices of Treasury pap and promises to bring them into range. So they had to RACE square out, postpone the election for a week, and undertake to fix things in the interim. We shall see how they succeed.

"POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY."—The Doughface presses at the North, which sustain the Nebraska Iniquity, insist that this bill completes the great principle of "Popular Sovereignty." How that principle is received and interpreted at the South, let the following paragraph from the Louisville Times show:

"The Richmond Enquirer very properly, in our opinion, defines the principle of squatter sovereignty to mean that the people moving to a new territory have the right to take just such property there as the persons going there think proper; and if any attempt should be made to expel slaves, that it is the duty of Congress to protect the holders of them."

This, you see, is a very different sort of "popular sovereignty" from the kind held out to the admiring gaze of the North. Here, we are told, that "popular sovereignty" means the right of the inhabitants of the future State of Nebraska, to establish or prohibit Slavery as they see fit. Not so, says the South—it only means that settlers going there may take with them what property they please; slaves, or horses, or cattle; and that Slaves once there cannot be excluded by any future legislation! This, of course, would make both Kansas and Nebraska Slave States for good.

THE BERLIN COURANT.—This paper succeeds the Marquette Mercury, Mr. J. H. WELLS having sold out to Messrs. J. G. TRACEY, and J. V. FITCH. The Courant is a well-printed and well-filled seven column paper. In their "salutatory," the editors promise to be consistent advocates of "the principles of the Democratic party;" on the question of Slavery, to assume "a firm, decided position in favor of Freedom," and to "use all the influence they can command in the cause of Temperance." Of the Nebraska Bill, the one, overshadowing issue now engrossing public attention, the Courant thus speaks:

The bill, if we understand it rightly, leaves it optional with the citizens of that territory to adopt or prohibit slavery, just as the majority may dictate; and this we consider in accordance with the provision of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State the privilege of making such laws for their internal government as the majority may deem just and expedient.

This portion of the bill, is not, we believe, the one to which objection is generally urged. It is the clause which provides for the abrogation of Compromises, which seem to have settled in a great measure, the dangerous and threatening agitation of the slavery question. The repeal of these Compromises, is certainly a breach of faith, and will, we fear, endanger the stability of the Union. The blame of this uncalled for proceeding, will, as it should, fall heavily upon its instigators.

SENATOR DODGE.—The Wisconsin of yesterday copies a paragraph from the Ripon Herald, to the effect that our Senator Dodge had "paired off" with his son, Augustus Dodge, on the final vote upon the Nebraska bill, and adds this comment:

The above has gone the rounds, and been published in nearly all the papers in this State. Augustus Dodge was in town at that time. This pairing off with voters at such a distance we don't think much of. It looks to us like Dodge-ing the responsibility.

We should have much preferred to have seen Gov. Dodge's vote recorded against the Nebraska bill, on its final, as on its first passage thro' the Senate. But he does not deserve the Wisconsin's taunt. During the long, earnest and animated discussion of this measure in the U. S. Senate, in February last, Senator Dodge was at his post, and when the final vote was taken at 5 o'clock in the morning of February 26th, after a protracted sitting of seventeen hours, he was present and faithfully represented his constituents by voting no. His absence on the second occasion was of the less consequence, since the majority in the Senate, in favor of the bill, was overwhelming, and its passage thro' that body a "foregone conclusion." He cannot, however, be said to have "dodged a responsibility" which he had already fully met.

MILWAUKEE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.—Why don't this company advertise? We have visits almost every day from persons inquiring as to the time of the arrival of trains at Madison and the departures thence. Our Madison papers are searched in vain for the desired information. No advertisement of the company furnishes anything by which we may know that there is a railroad connection with Milwaukee. It would be a good investment for the company and generally satisfactory to the public, to have a few dimes invested in advertising.—Badger State.

The desired information may be found in the advertising columns of the Sentinel, and of other Milwaukee papers. But it should also appear in the Madison papers, and indeed we had supposed that it did so. No doubt the officers of the Company will promptly correct the omission.

CONFESSION.—The Madison Democrat, which has distinguished itself for fulsome praises of the last Legislature, and roundly abused all who found fault with it, is preparing to make a clean breast of it, and begins in this wise:

We believe that the last legislature, and each one before it, has made extravagant appropriations for the State prison—that it costs the State three times as much to keep its prisoners as it would cost a good business man to support and keep securely the same number of desperate characters. We believe that Col. SHAW's claim was perfectly groundless. We believe that other appropriations were made without justice or reason.

Now let us see the two Standards, the Badger State, Pick and Gad, and Wisconsin follow the good example.

☞ The Morning News repeats its fabrication that the Sentinel has made "ridiculously contradictory assertions about Cuba and Slavery in Nebraska." It would be a ridiculous waste of time to pay the News the compliment of exposing a second time its silly falsehood.

CONVICTED.—JAMES CONNAUGHTY has been convicted in Milwaukee for the murder of John Gullon in that city in the summer of 1851. He was sentenced to ten years in the State Prison. This was his second trial, having been convicted before, but Gov. Farwell granted him a new trial about a year ago.—Menasha Advocate.

Is the Advocate quite sure about that? There is a prevailing notion down this way that it was the Supreme Court, not the Governor, that granted Connaughty a new trial.

RAIL ROAD RECEIPTS.—The Albany Atlas publishes the receipts of the Oswego and Syracuse Rail Road for the five months ending June 1st, and compares them with the like period in '53, as follows:

Five months in '54	$32,667.39.
Five " " '53	22,505.90.
Increase	$10,161,49.

The Atlas doubts "if there is a road in the country that will exhibit a larger per cent. of increase in the same time." We beg leave to call its attention to the following statement of the earnings of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Rail Road for precisely the same periods, which will help to solve its "doubts:"

Five months in '54	$130,212,02.
Five " " '53	50,787,74.
Increase	$79,424,28.

It is but fair to add, however, that a new section of 18 miles from Milton to Stoughton, was open in '54 which was not in operation in '53.

NEBRASKA IN WALWORTH COUNTY.—The Walworth Co. Reporter, the organ of the "democracy" in Walworth County, declares that the passage of the Nebraska bill "is anything but satisfactory to the Democracy of Wisconsin;" the News to the contrary notwithstanding; and thinks that "it will be formally discarded and denounced in many of the County and District Conventions next Fall." It adds that if the party do not "repudiate the measure," the People will repudiate the party—a true saying—and thus frankly defines its own position on the question:

We know that nine out of every ten do disapprove of the course that has been pursued, and most deeply regret it. But will they acquiesce? We say some may, but many others, very many others will not. The democratic party will be beaten, in the State. This is an unavoidable result, and we intend to have something to say in the matter. As the conductors of a democratic press, we feel it our duty to speak out, and we can to speak plainly, and will not be misunderstood. We shall not acquiesce in this outrage. We shall support no man that does.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Sheboygan, June 12th.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Sheboygan is increasing but slowly. Few buildings are going up this summer, yet business I am told has increased full one hundred per cent. All apparently feel encouraged; and the vacant lots that are so plentifully scattered around beneath the pines, now begin to feel the enlivening influence, and are rising in value. Yet prices are far below us, and when compared with Chicago lots "with valuable water priviledges," Sheboygan prices are nowhere. The dry high eminence on which the city is built, commanding such an extended view of the lake, gives place to a large number of eligible sites for building. The tide of travel and emigration continues to sweep on through to Lake Winnebago and Fox river country. A large number of stages and teams pass daily over the plank road to Fond du Lac. Through Lake Winnebago, Fox and Wolf rivers, emigrants are constantly passing to the last Menominee purchase. But two years since that medium of communication was unknown, and travellers bound for that quarter landed at Milwaukee.

Ship building at Sheboygan constitutes a material item in the business of the city. A large and splendid schooner is just receiving her outfit of rigging and spars—built for LUDINGTON & Co., of Milwaukee. She sits upon the water like a thing of life, with an air of ease and elegance that will render her the envy of many a Lake "tar."

A DISH OF FUN.—The reader is affectionately invited to peruse the following. It has nothing to do with the Know Nothing dialect, but is simply a specimen of about three columns of our matter on one of our standing galleys, the result of the fall of one of the forms of our daily, early yesterday morning, after it had been worked off:

[illegible]

FOR THE SAULT.—We take the following from the Chicago Press of yesterday morning. The Queen City was reported as having gone to Buffalo for repairs, but it seems hardly probable that the Press would give the notice without reason:

FOR THE SAULT.—The Queen City leaves this evening for Sault Ste. Marie, and has the finest accommodations for passengers. She is a capital boat and commanded by excellent officers. The Troy will leave for the Sault next Friday evening.

THE TROY COMING.—The steamer Troy left Buffalo Friday noon, on her way up to take the place of the Garden City in the semi-weekly line from here to the Sault. She has been thoroughly overhauled and put in excellent condition for the route.

WRECK OF THE BRIG J. Y. SCAMMON.—We learn from the captain of the propeller Niagara, that the brig J. Y. Scammon, of Chicago, in the lumber trade, went ashore on the beach at the South Manitou on Wednesday morning last. She had 17 passengers on board, who were landed the next day on the coast of Michigan. The captain of the Scammon thinks the vessel will be a total loss. She was about 10 years old, and of 240 tons burthen.

GRANT COUNTY LANDS.—The Platteville American learns that Mr. B. C. EASTMAN, the representative from the Western District of our State, intends to sell a part of the large tract of land (six thousand acres,) which he owns near Lancaster. The American says the land is of choice quality, and that Mr. EASTMAN has received liberal offers from capitalists in Kentucky, who design opening extensive stock farms, for raising the finest quality of blooded stock. This is a business that pays handsomely in Wisconsin.

☞ The railroads under construction and projected in Missouri are as follows:

1. Pacific to Kansas, distance say,	300 miles.
St. Louis and Iron Mountain,	80 do
St. Louis and South Western,	300 do
North Missouri,	250 do
Hannibal and St. Joseph,	200 do
Weston and St. Louis,	200 do
In all,	1330 miles

Estimating them to cost $25,000 a mile would require the sum of $33,750,000.

Another German Witness against Nebraska.

The News, in its anxiety to represent the German Press and People of this State as having changed front on the Nebraska question, has doubtless overlooked the Sauk County Pioneer, a German "democratic" organ, which, in its last issue, thus speaks of the great iniquity and of the Demagogues and Doughfaces who sustain it:

We need not ask, why it is that the Standard has seen fit thus to belie what it well knows to be the deliberate and earnest sentiment of the great majority of the democratic party of this county and State. Is there somebody who pulls the editorial wires of the Standard who is vain enough to suppose, that, because he has once actually seen President Pierce, and, perhaps, received a nod from that fortunate as well as unfortunate gentleman, that therefore he can reckon upon an office from Government, upon the organization of Nebraska as a Territory; and does this OLD LINE DEMOCRAT, this PEER IN THE WOOL DEMOCRAT, expect that by misrepresenting the party into whose arms he so lately threw himself, only to shame and dishonor it, he will secure to himself such an office? If he does so reckon we trust he will find himself grievously mistaken. We tell him he does not know the democratic party of this senatorial district, and that because it made one foolish mistake two years ago in warming into a short and inglorious political career a certain individual, much better known now than then, he must not think it can be deceived the second time. We say a foolish mistake, because we ought to have known that the man who would without hesitation descend to the parts for office, would without shame insult the opinions and betray the interest of another party for the same object. The Standard says that agitators, abolitionists, woolly-heads and niggers may make a senseless opposition to the principles of the Nebraska bill, &c. And it is thus that a pretended organ of the democratic party talks about the whole of our Congressional delegation, every member of which voted against that infamous measure, except Clacy, and he did not vote at all. And it is thus that a democratic paper characterizes the numerous able and patriotic democratic members of Congress from the New England and other States, who with vote and voice denounced the bill, including that noble and fearless old warrior in the democratic ranks, Thos. H. Benton, who so heroically dealt his sledge hammer blows upon that abominable project.

Neither the Standard, nor all the other slavish echoes of the Union, can quiet the aroused indignation of a free people by crying "woolly head" and "nigger." A woolly head is better than a craven and rotten hearted demagogue, and the blackest nigger on any Southern plantation is a far nobler being than any white slave in Wisconsin, who is ready to throw conscience and principle aside and bow down in the dust and kiss the feet of traitors for a portion of the spoils of treason.

BRUTAL MURDER IN CHICAGO.—About 10 o'clock on Sunday evening last, a most brutal murder was committed in a grocery on the North side, corner of Wells and Division sts. It seems that one George Lawrence and his brother, both Germans, together with the grocery keepers, got into some difficulty with four Irish boys, 18 or 20 years of age. The lads took the scale weights from the counter and carried them out doors, when one of the Lawrences followed them and was attacked—his skull broken in, and he was otherwise so much injured that no hopes are entertained of his recovery. His brother, who went to the rescue, was so badly injured that it is thought he cannot survive. Marshal Knights, on hearing of the affray, proceeded to the spot with a police force and arrested three of the murderers, named James Hogan, John Warren, and John Conner. The eldest, named Hickey, fled; but the officers are after him.—Chic. Trib.

AN EDITOR TURNED FARMER.—Our old friend HADLEY, who, as editor of the Watertown Chronicle, made one of the best papers in the State, laid down the quill a year ago, on account of failing health, and took to an out door life. How successfully, the following extracts from a letter of his, which we find in the Green Bay Advocate, will tell:

* * * * I have bought a farm of 93 acres on the north line of the city, on the direct road to Jefferson—from an elevation on which farm, the traveler catches the first glimpse of the city, on his way from that village. I paid $2,700 for the farm, and have laid it out into lots of from 3 to 10 acres—the peculiar shape of the river bringing most of the lots upon the stream. I have sold a number of the lots at good prices, and am sanguine that I shall be able to reserve 35 acres for a homestead—making the balance meet the original cost of the entire farm. This reservation, which I value at full $4,000, is capable of making just one of the most lovely homesteads of any place of land to be found within ten miles of this or any other city. It commands a view of not only most of the city and country to the east, west and south, but of the Rock river for the distance of two miles, and if a Railroad shall ever be built, running south from here, the cars may be seen for a mile and a half from my cottage, to be "Prospect Villa."—the name I have given to my reservation being "Prospect Hill." About 20 acres of this reservation are cleared; the balance is well timbered—the timber being particularly valuable in consequence of its standing within 80 rods of the saw mill at the lower water power. I intend to commence improving the place next spring, but instead of "farming" it, shall stud most of the land with fruit trees; and if blessed with life and health for a few years, shall be able to show you, and such other friends as may favor me with a call—and I most devoutly hope I shall one day have the pleasure of seeing you here—one of the finest fruiteries of Wisconsin.

I fear with my boasting—for so I am thinking you will characterize it—a moment longer. A little over two months since, I purchased an 80 acre timbered lot, 4 1-2 miles south of here for $800. I am offered $1100 for it, but have declined to take it. Fourteen months ago, I purchased the premises where I reside—a large good house and half a block of land—at $650. I have expended by way of building, fruit trees, shrubbery, &c., about $300. A few weeks since I was offered $1800 for the place. I don't want to sell it; but when I do I can take considerable more than that sum of money."

INTERESTING DISCOVERY.—We mentioned a few days ago, that the workmen employed in excavating on the new freight depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad, exhumed a lot of cannon balls, and other articles. Yesterday the entrance to the old magazine was discovered; and in the interior a bible, dated in the year 1747, was found. In the bible was a note, purporting to be written by a man named Anderson, who was about to be executed for some reason or other. The note stated that he was entirely innocent of the crime charged, but expressed a perfect resignation to his fate.

A large number of cannon balls, military buttons, and other articles, were also found in the same place, together with a stone about five feet long, bearing an inscription which could not be deciphered.

The ground dug over by the company covers a space of a couple of acres; and about five or six feet of earth has been removed. At this distance from the surface the ground when trod upon sends forth a hollow sound, and vibrates considerably, as if a subterranean passage or cavern was underneath.—Phila. Post, 2d inst.

Extraordinary Escape.

The people of Lyons, and indeed of France, have for the last nineteen days been kept in a state of constant excitement regarding two men who had literally been buried alive by the falling in of a well at which they had been working.—One died, but the other, with the body of his dead comrade pressing on him, held on with extraordinary fortitude, supported by provisions which were let down to him through grags formed by the transverse beams, which fell in such a manner as to form a screen over his head. We find the following details in the Lyons journals of the 3d:

"A considerable fall of earth again took place two days ago in the well of Boule, and it was for a moment feared that the adit was completely filled up. Thanks, however, to the indefatigable zeal of the workmen, and the skilful management of Captain Robinet, the mischief was promptly repaired. It is hoped that the prisoner will be released on Thursday. On Saturday he received a visit from Marshal de Castellane, who in addition to words of encouragement, brought him a bottle of Madeira, which he appeared to receive with as much gratitude as satisfaction.

On Sunday evening Girard made a substantial meal, composed of a cutlet and some glasses of Malaga. This regimen is quite to his taste, and contributes not a little to make him bear his sad captivity with patience. We need not mention that his diet is regulated by the military surgeon, who visits him several times a day, and will not allow anything to be given that can injure his health. Although familiarized with the presence of the dead body, Girard does not the less suffer from it. The body, which lies on an inclined plane is sliding under him, and every day incommodes him more and more. On Sunday the Procureur Imperial visited Ecully, in order to obtain information from Girard relative to the circumstances attendant on the catastrophe, as it is thought that such an event could not occur without raising serious questions as to responsibility.

The declarations of the victim necessary for the examination of the affair were received by Capt. Robinet, who, having descended some yards into the well, transmitted the questions to Girard, and received his replies. This kind of interrogatory continued about a quarter of an hour. The poor prisoner appears to have made up his mind to all the consequences of his situation. He will scarcely allow any one to speak to him of the hopes entertained, or to point out the probable day of his deliverance. He says that he is aware that every exertion is making for his release, and on which he has such firm reliance, that so long as he maintains his strength and courage, a day more or less is of little consequence.

The end of the adit is not, it is considered, more than 90 centimetres from the spot where Girard stands. His voice can be distinctly heard, and he replies to the questions put to him. The interstice through which the wire of the bell passes, and through which his food is conveyed to him, is not more than seven inches in diameter. The decomposed body of Girard's companion having begun to attract the flies, it has been found necessary to enclose the opening with something that shall prevent their entrance without intercepting the air and light which reach the prisoner through that orifice."

The Presse thus announces the final success of the efforts made for the delivery of the hero of this extraordinary event:

"We hasten to communicate to our readers a gratifying piece of news, which reached us just as we were going to press. The drama of Ecully is at an end. Girard was delivered from his subterranean prison at 8 o'clock yesterday evening, in a most satisfactory state."

As the well fell on the 14th ult. Girard had been in his dreadful place of confinement nineteen days. So great was the interest excited in high places, that the Empress received by order, a telegraphic dispatch every day.

IMPORTED STOCK FOR WISCONSIN.—The Menasha Advocate copies the following paragraph from the London Herald:

Portsmouth, Eng., May 7.

The Ocean Queen, American liner, W. B Smith, commander, arrived from the River to-day, and having taken in passengers and stores from Lloyd's agents at this port, left for New York at 4 P. M. She also shipped a magnificent entire horse, belonging to Capt. Mackinnon, R. N., a remarkably fine bull, and other live stock, for breeding purposes, all of which were carefully and safely put on board.

Capt. Mackinnon designs this stock for his beautiful place on Lake Winnebago.

LOCUSTS IN GRANT COUNTY.—The Platteville (Grat Co) American, of Saturday last, contains the following paragraph:

Mr. E. FERRIS, of Orion, Richland Co., says that in travelling from Muscoda to this town he passed through a cloud of Locusts.

He says they occupy a strip of country about 4 miles wide and appear to be destroying everything in their track. He first saw them near the Bluffs, this side of English Prairie, in myriads.

A CHALLENGE.—Robert T. Seymour of the town of Lafayette of this county and late of Rhinebeck Dutchess county N. Y. has a French Buck of the Bahauellet breed, two years old last March, from which he has taken a fleece that weighed THIRTY POUNDS after tagging off four and a ½ pounds. The Buck weighed before shearing 203 pounds and was imported by Wm. Chamberlain of Dutchess county N. Y. We challenge any wool grower to beat that. If it can be done we would like to know who can do it.—Walworth Co. Reporter.

THE CROPS.—The crops hereabouts are all in a flourishing condition, and bid fair to yield a large reward to the patient industry of the husbandman. Winter wheat especially, never looked better. The season has been remarkably favorable to its growth, and next autumn will bring tidings of extraordinary yields.

Hurry up the Railroad.—Berlin Courant.

☞ We have seen the first volume of the Supreme Court Reports, printed at the Sentinel office, Milwaukee. It is a neat job, and reflects credit upon the printers of it.—Racine Democrat.

A SLAVE MURDERED IN VIRGINIA.—The following is from a letter from a gentleman, who has been observing men and things at the South. It was written on the 20 ult. We extract the following account of a horrid affair which occurred in Nelson county, Va., on the 18th, two days before the letter was written:

"I had not thought that so heart-rending a scene from 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' would come under my own observation. Day before yesterday, a slave, a young man in the prime of life, was whipped to death by the overseer of a plantation in this neighborhood. 'He was worth $1000.' The overseer tied him in the barn and beat for four hours. I am told that he was whipped for a very trifling offence. When so exhausted that he fainted, the poor fellow was washed with brine, then whipped and washed again. This was repeated six times. He was tied up soon after breakfast, and released about one o'clock and sent to the field to work.—He fainted in the field. A shower came up, and he contrived to get into the barn, where he died. While the overseer was beating him he begged him to shoot him: while he could speak, he kept moaning, 'O massa!' His master and mistress are not at home. There is great indignation in the neighborhood against the overseer, but what they will do I cannot say. This is not the first Legree I have heard tell about, but it is the first genuine Legree case that has fallen under my observation. The overseer has not been arrested, and moves about as if he had done nothing uncommon."—Buffalo Dem.

THE ECLIPSE.—Dr. Gould, editor of the Astronomical Journal, has the following information in reference to the different places where observations were made.

The clouds and rain have prevented observations of the Eclipse at many desirable points.—The Coast Survey Station on the summit of Mount Agamenticus, almost precisely in the central line, had, by direction of Professor Bache, been equipped with a transit instrument, and both refracting telescopes, all which were mounted, and housings for them built, by the Editor of this Journal with Messrs. Hilgard and Hill. But the sun was invisible throughout the day. The astronomers at the Cambridge Observatory, Cloverdon, Dartmouth College, and Wilmington, N. C. were also prevented by clouds from noting any of the phenomena. On the other hand, the weather at N. Y. and Washington was most favorable; and a telegraphic dispatch from Professor Alexander states that the sky at Ogdensburg was cloudless, that the phenomena were admirably seen, and daguerreotyped impressions of the annulus taken.

LUNATIC ASYLUM.—The Commissioners have received several offers of a very acceptable nature from various parts of the State. We understand from H. H. Gray Esq., of Lafayette Co. that he has offered them 160 acres of good land near Darlington, in that county, and $1000 in cash.

D. W. Jones of the same county has offered 160 acres of land near Belmont.—Madison Democrat.

The Resources of Japan.

Foremost among the resources of Japan are its fisheries. The sea and its productions, we believe, contribute fully as much to the sustenance of the natives as do the fruits of the earth—rice, perhaps, excepted. One of their productions has a value which is not confined to the spot, but extends to us—to our enterprise, and our trade—we mean the whale, or as they call it, kudzuri.—There is nothing of which such extensive use is made by the Japanese, both for rich and poor.—It is found all round Japan, but particularly in the sea Kenunano, which washes the southern coasts of the Island Niphon, the most important territory of the empire; and it also prevails in the Islands Taussima and Goto, and upon the coasts of Omura and Nomo. These whales not only afford oil in great abundance, but their flesh, which is very wholesome and nutritious, is largely consumed. No part of them, indeed, is thrown away—all is made available to some useful purpose or another, excepting only the large shoulder bone. The skin, which is generally black, the flesh, which is red, and looks like beef: the intestines, and all the inward parts; besides the fat or blubber, which is boiled into oil, and bone, which is coverted into innumerable uses—all is made available to purposes of profit.

[We have gone into these few particulars respecting the whale, because it is that which has brought our countrymen into contact with Japan. Many of our ships have for some considerable time past frequented those seas for capturing the whale, an occupation which, it is found, might be pursued with great advantage, under a commercial treaty with the government of Japan, whose inhuman laws at present not only prevent any assistance being rendered to ship-wrecked mariners, but expose them to positive maltreatment, and even to violent death. To obtain redress in this respect was the primary object of Commodore Perry's expedition.

Japan abounds in natural and artificial productions of great value. Its mineral riches are enormous, and include metals of various kinds, especially gold, silver and copper. Sulphur and nitre are also found in large quantities; there is no want of coal, and there are precious stones of almost every variety: agates, sapphires, jaspers, cornelians, and even diamonds; while pearls are found in great plenty among the shells upon the coast. Then the fertility of the soil is very great. The mulberry tree grows extensively, and affords food for countless myriad of silk worms. The Eudzi, or paper-tree, serves innumerable useful purposes, including the manufacture of cloths, stuffs, and cordage. The cersui, or varnish-tree, is another valuable production of the country, yielding large quantities of a milky juice which the natives employ to varnish, or japan, as we call it, various articles.

Then there are the bay-tree, the camphor-tree, the cha-tree, the cypress-tree, with very many more, all more or less valuable, and from which a great variety of useful things are made; and last, tho' not least, there is the tea-shrub, from the leaves of which the common drink of the people is brewed, and which is capable of yielding a valuable article of commerce. Trees growing nuts of various kinds are abundant: the maple is extensive and excellent; bamboos are very plentiful, and of great use, as they are everywhere in the Indies; they cultivate as much hemp and cotton as they can find room for in their fields; and as to rice, which is the main food of the natives, that grown in Japan is considered the best in all Asia, and it can be produced in almost any quantity. Their corns are of several sorts; besides the kemi or rice there are the commungi, a kind of barley; the kocunggi, their native wheat; and the daidson, a species of bean—all of which abound with superior farina.

The manufactures of Japan have, hitherto, been confined almost exclusively to their own domestic wants; but many of them are, nevertheless, valuable as articles of exports. Our adoption here and throughout Europe of the term japan as applied to certain kinds of varnished ware, indicates how well known has been their peculiar excellence, if not their invention of, that useful art. They make various articles from the paper-tree, resembling our papier machie, which they paint and varnish, on paper, very highly; and these might form objects of considerable trade.—Their silks, woulins and cotton goods are most of them very superior, and some of them are calculated to become highly recherche; and their carvings in wood, ivory, pearl, and fish-bone, are most ingenious and elegant. These are but a few of the products of their handicraft; but they are sufficient to show, taken in connection with their natural productions, how varied and how valuable are the resources of the Japanese.

To establish, then, a commercial intercourse with such a country, were surely a most important object; and our heartiest "God-speed" will go along with every expedition for that purpose; nor do we consider the difficulties and dangers necessity have to be overcome, as by any means insurmountable.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

BAMBOO POTTERY.—We paid this establishment a visit the other day, and was pleased to find that the Messrs. Poyntons' had made so many improvements in buildings and in the quality of their ware. They have one building 125 feet in length, in which are the moulding, drying and glazing rooms. Their oven is of the largest size. Their ware cannot be surpassed by any pottery in the State. The clay of which it is made giver it the appearance more of stone than earthen ware; it is compact and admits of a fine polish. Mr. Poynton tells us he is continually receiving orders from most all parts of the State for his ware.—Sauk Co. Standard.

FOX RIVER NAVIGATION.—The steamboat Montello, from Oshkosh, passed through the canal at this place into the Wisconsin river on Tuesday last, on her way to St. Peters river, in Minnesota. We learn from the officers of this boat, that she steamed her way from Lake Winnebago to within five miles of our city without obstruction. From that point, the crooked channel and sandbars in the river, and the miserable condition of the locks and the canal, made the passage a work of some difficulty. But the fact of seeing a steamboat pass from Lake Winnebago to the Mississippi river, in the present condition of the river improvements, seems to settle the point that the time is coming when this is to be a great highway of trade between the Atlantic cities and the immense stock-raising states of the west.—Badger State (Portage City.)

BUSINESS.—Manitowoc would be an exception to the general rule in Wisconsin, should we neglect to chronicle our present prosperity and bright anticipations. Even at this early period, our exports have been very large, and the prospect is that they may increase to the end of the season. A corresponding activity prevails in the various branches of trade, and a start has been given to building and the various local improvements surpassing the experience of former years. A portion of the tide of emigration is constantly flowing into this country, and we may calculate upon a large increase during the present summer.—Manitowoc Herald.

Now and Then.

We do not remember to have seen any thing that so fully exemplified the complete revolution in the public mind in relation to slavery, as the following extract from the Boston correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post:

On Saturday Major-General B. F. Edmunds signed the mammoth petition for the repeal of the infamous fugitive slave bill, he therein following the example of almost all our business men; and his example, in turn, is being followed by the troops he commanded. This petition is a remarkable document. It compared with the celebrated memorial to Daniel Webster, it would be found to enrol nearly the same names. The one thanking him for aiding in imposing the compromise measures, and this asking the repeal of one of those measures. Among the names on this petition stands that of John H. Pearson, who furnished the vessel which carried off Thomas Sims in 1852. Now he not only signs this petition, but would not allow the steam tug that was to take Burns to the revenue cutter to lay at Long wharf, he being the lessee.

THE LIQUOR DEMONSTRATION.—On Friday last some eight or ten persons supposed to be engaged in the recent demonstration of destroying the liquor in this place, were arrested upon a warrant for wilful and malicious destruction of personal property, issued by Justice Hallis of Prairie du Sac upon the complaint of Michael Conel, proprietor of the Wisconsin House. Upon being arrested, the defendants offered to go before any Magistrate of the village and enter into a recognizance. But they were taken to Sauk, where an examination was had, and six of the ladies were committed to the jail of the County, they having refused to give bail for their appearance at the next Circuit Court. The others were discharged for want of proof. On Monday the prisoners were brought before the Hon. E. G. Wheeler, County Judge upon a writ of Habeas Corpus issued by him, and after a full hearing the prisoners were discharged (pro forma) for the defect in the mittimus. The prisoners are retained in custoy for an examination, de nova.—Sauk Co. Standard.

LEAD FOUND NEAR OSHKOSH.—We were shown yesterday a specimen of Lead Ore, taken from the ground, some three miles west of this city, and it is supposed that large quantities exist in that locality. Wm. Markham, Esq., is the owner of the land on which the ore was found. We understand that it is the intention of Mr. Markham in a few weeks to go into a thorough examination of the whole matter. There is also, on the same land, one of the largest and best quarries in the State—the stone almost approaching to marble.—Oshkosh Courier.

Drunkenness in the Allied Army.

From the London Times.

GALLIPOLI, Saturday May 6th.

Drunkenness continues to be the great evil of the allied army. In one company of the 93d Regiment upwards of 20 men were brought up on one morning at the camp to answer for this offence. A huge gaunt Highlander, who had been fraternizing with some Zouaves, presented a ludicrous appearance on coming up before his officers. He had, in the height of his convivial fellowship, exchanged the greater portion of his dress with an African soldier, and when morning brought recollection he must have been rather horrified to find himself in a fez cap, a blue jacket embroidered with

A summons was issued against the city of Milwaukee, in favor of Martin Vizzard for the use of Hiram Church.

A city warrant was issued against Andrew Bratz, on complaint of John Krantschneider for disturbing the peace of the city, with disorderly behaviour.

STEALING A TRUNK.—Theodore Arntz was brought down from Jail and examined on a charge of stealing a trunk and contents; the defendant was bound over in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the Circuit Court. The defendant claimed that he had a trunk of his own and had taken this in a mistake. The officer was instructed to write to his friends, by the District Att'y, and ascertain particulars. The statements of the defendant were conflicting. The owner of the trunk, who resides in Sheboygan was required to enter into his recognizance in the sum of $100 for his appearance to prosecute.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILROAD LINE.—We learn from Capt COTTON, the agent of this line here, that passengers leaving this city by the evening boat, and arriving at Detroit the next evening, can take either the boat from Detroit, or the evening train by the Great Western Railroad, and go forward without stopping.

Let the Streets and Alleys be Cleansed.

MR. EDITOR:—The filthy condition of our streets and alleys is a matter of general conversation and complaint. The press also has called the attention of our city authorities to the fact; but as yet very little has been done to remove the evil. In times of epidemic, there is nothing which tends more to secure the repose of the people, than the knowledge that all has been done that can be done to remove obstacles that are well known to harbor the dread enemy of their lives, and the lives of their wives and children.—Can the city authorities be ignorant of the truth, that cleanliness gives cheerfulness and confidence of comparative security to those who enjoy it? How can they escape the moral responsibility of the dogged indifference they are now manifesting in regard to this question. Let any timid person, predisposed as he is to an attack from any epidemic disease, inhale the filthy effluvium arising from many of our alleys, and if don't actually kill him, it will put him in such dread, that life will be worse than death.—Free Dem. T.

All true to a T, but what of it? The Council are deaf to all such appeals, and their organ, the Wisconsin, resents every call made upon them by the press, to do their duty, as an unfounded imputation upon "the most industrious and energetic Board our city has ever had."

OUR DIRTY STREETS.—A merchant on East Water street begs us to call the attention of the City Authorities to the accumulation of filth in the gutters along that thoroughfare. What is the use? We have done so, time and again; and all the satisfaction that we, or the public, get, is a certificate from the Wisconsin, the "official organ," that our City "never had a more industrious and energetic Board than the present one." Ought not the knowledge of that fact to reconcile a long-suffering public to any degree, or depth of dirt in the streets? Suppose that the gutters do fairly reek with filth; that every alley "smells to heaven," and every vacant lot is redolent of pestilential vapors—what is all that to the consolatory circumstance, vouched for by the "organ" of the Council, that our City is blessed with an "industrious and energetic Board"! Therefore, ye unreasonable tax-payers, ye grumbling citizens, complain no longer, but suffer in silence and thank God that it is no worse!

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Caleb Wall sold yesterday lots 7, 8, 9, Block 134, in the First Ward for $4500, and the north one-third of quarter block 46, in the same Ward, for $500.

COLD SPRING RACES.—The Spring meeting at the Cold Spring Course commences this afternoon. A purse of $50 is offered for all green trotting horses, and one of $25 for running horses, one mile and repeat.

SCHOONER MAJOR BARNUM.—Mr. JAMES NUGENT requests us to make his acknowledgements to some two hundred of his countrymen, who volunteered, a day or two since, to get his schooner, the Major Barnum, afloat, and succeeded in doing so, after two hours' hard work, without any expense to him.

STEALING A TRUNK.—A man named Theodore Arntz was arrested on Monday night by under Sheriff Conover for stealing a trunk belonging to John Malman. The owner of the trunk was going to Sheboygan on the Pacific and had his trunk on the pier, when the thief put it in a dray, paying the draymen 25 cents to take it out to the end of the pier; he was allowed to take it off by the officer and then arrested and taken to jail. The trunk and contents are valued at fifty two dollars, which makes it under the new law a state prison offence.

GERMANIA BANK.—A new bank of this name will be opened as a Bank for the issue of notes, in a few days by Messrs. PAPENDIEK—the sign, already decorates the window.

THE ROSSITER SAFE.—The Chicago Press says that the propeller Rossiter, reported ashore near Oak Creek, has arrived safely at Chicago.

MICH. SOUTHERN RAILROAD.—Mr. PECKHAM, agent of this line, informs us that travelers leaving here by the evening boat, arrive at Chicago in time for the 5 A. M. Lightning Train on the Southern Road, which, arriving at Monroe at 2 P. M., gives them the chance of getting to Buffalo early the next morning. Quick enough!

EVENING BOAT.—The Pacific left last evening for Chicago at 8 P. M., with a large number of passengers, bound Eastward.

FIRE AT FORT SNELLING.—The dragoon stable at Fort Snelling was destroyed by fire on the night of Friday last. The fire, which took place from means unknown, occurred at 10 o'clock.—It is supposed to have been fired by some soldier who was intoxicated; and it is feared that he was consumed with the stable, as one of the dragoons was missing on Saturday. Several wagons and other articles were burnt. The horses were all saved. Loss estimated at $4,000.—Minnesota Pioneer.

Special Dispatch to the New York Tribune.

Washington, June 5.

The George Buchanan lately appointed United States Consul to Rochelle in France and who goes out as bearer of dispatches to our Minister in France Spain and Russia, to the man who wrote that scurrilous article which appeared in the Richmond Enquirer abusing Gen. Houston for his course on the Nebraska bill. The same Buchanan is well known among the hotels and boarding houses in this District, where he has been a clerk in one of the Departments and in London since his removal, "seen and known of all men" and washer women. Gen. Houston alluded to this latter and its author in his speech in the U. S. Senate, and he afterwards called on the Secretary of State, informing that functionary of the fact and of Buchanan's true character.
Mr. Marcy acknowledged that he had received a note from the widow of a naval officer, informing him that Buchanan had boarded in her house, had acted disgracefully, and left, owing her over seventy dollars. Such is the character of our foreign appointments. Dr. Olds of Ohio expects to go to Constantinople, in place of Mr. Spence, to be recalled. Mr. Ingersoll expects the Chili Mission, and Mr. Orr of South Carolina expects to be the Administration leader and Speaker of the next House of Representatives.

WATCH THIEF.—On Thursday last, a man, named Burdett Pickel, stole a silver watch from the Railroad House, at Watertown, and vamosed. He was pursued, overtaken near Menomonee Falls, carried back, tried, found guilty, fined $30 and costs and, in default thereof, sent to Jefferson County jail for six months.—Free Dem.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE,
THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS FOR SALE
ONE OF THE MOST DESIRABLE FARMS
In the State of Wisconsin.

IT CONTAINS one hundred and forty-six acres, is well watered, rich fertile soil, provided with timber and meadow land, and is under a good state of cultivation. It is situated between two of the main thoroughfares leading out of Madison (the County Seat of Dane County, and the Capital of the State of Wisconsin) one and a half miles from the Capitol House, and one half mile from the State University. The location is on an elevated plain, giving an excellent view of the Town, "Third" and "Fourth Lake" and the high rolling Prairies, fifteen to twenty miles distant, making it one of the most desirable country seats in the whole Western States. Its proximity to the Capital will make it a convenient residence for one doing business in the city or to one for agricultural purposes alone, and for an investment will result in great pecuniary advantage.—The farm is known in and about Madison as the "Gorum Farm." A large part of the purchase money may remain on Bond and Mortgage for a term of years. Any enquiries by mail respecting the above farm will be promptly answered. my15d3w&wtf LEONARD J. FARWELL.
